

Constellation Report

Instructions:

1. Choose a constellation to research.
2. Include all of the facts listed on the report sheet.
3. Using a piece of black construction paper and materials of your choosing (ex. white crayon/colored pencil, chalk, string), illustrate your constellation.

Use the following websites to guide your research:

<http://www.dkfindout.com/us/space/constellations/>

<https://stardate.org/nightsky/constellations>

<http://www.constellation-guide.com/constellation-names/>

Constellation Research

Student Name: _____

CATEGORY	4	3	2	1
Written Report	Student has completed all of the required information on the report. It is accurate and spelled correctly.	One piece of information is inaccurate or missing. Report may contain spelling errors.	Two pieces of information are inaccurate or missing. Report contains several spelling errors.	Three or more pieces of information are inaccurate or missing. Report contains several spelling errors.
Illustration	Illustration is correct; All stars in the constellation are present	One star in the constellation is missing from the illustration	Two stars in the constellation are missing from the illustration	Three or more stars in the constellation are missing from the illustration
Resources			Contains list of resources used and is properly formatted	Resources are listed, but may be formatted incorrectly

Total:     /10

Constellation Report

Written by: _____

Name of Constellation: _____

These stars are included in the constellation: _____

_____

_____

It is visible in the sky during: _____

It received its name by: _____

_____

_____

_____

Resources Used

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

